ART CAMP AT THALGARRAH

On Wednesday Bailey, Will M and I went to an art camp at Thalgarrah. After we set up our beds in the lodges we had to pick a partner who we did not know and learn about them. We played a game where there were 4 teams and the grass was lava and we had to get across with 14 carpets.

We had to get 5 leaves and scratch our leaf into Styrofoam and then paint over it then put a piece of paper on it. Then we did abstract art. After that we played tribes and territories. We won 2 out of 3 then we did night abstract art and then it was time for bed.

On Thursday we drew and painted a bug and then we made a photo painting with chemicals.

It was really fun and I hope I go next year.

Kye 5/6M

All the boys slept in one cabin with 16 bed bunks and the girls slept in 4 cabins and I don't know how many bunks were in them.

We ate in a hall, going table by table, to go up and get our food and it was really good. Marie cooks it all by herself. The toilets are just outside of the hall, and the showers are as well.

We had classes put together with people from lots of places like Gunnedah, Tamworth, Glen Innes etc so we were lucky to be chosen from such a wide area.
